Cargobull Parts & Services

1,000,000 Spare parts*
1,000,000 Reasons for you to get back on the road again

just more.

Whatever you need

We have, will search for and deliver whatever spare parts, components, running gear or consumable parts you require. Articles in stock will be delivered within 24 hours.

- Use our extensive selection: all of the more than 35,000 spare parts that have ever been fitted by Schmitz Cargobull are available to you.
- Profit from a faster, more economical and Europe-wide delivery: The parts will be delivered to you from our warehouse within one day. This is ensured by the additional warehouses and spare parts support points in 13 countries.
- Take advantage of our professional brand quality: We have all original spare parts, even those of our system partners and leading suppliers.

Around the clock: for a simple and cost effective ordering

EPOS, the leading electronic spare parts documentation and ordering system in the trailer industry. Available 24 hours a day and 365 days a year.

- Reduce your costs and avoid making mistakes: The use of EPOS under www.cargobull-serviceportal.com is a child's play: parts are identified quickly and the order form is generated for you automatically. You will find the required parts quickly and easily just by entering your chassis number.
- Avoid downtimes for you and your customer: you will be back on the road in no time at all and save money thanks to the unambiguous information for parts availability and the over-night delivery service.
- Get everything done in one go: for you there is only one order, one delivery, one invoice and one book-keeping entry.
- Choose the easiest way for yourself: we would also be more than happy to take your order per telephone.

Full Service Contract: for a high value retention of your trailer

With the Full Service Contract from Cargobull Parts & Services you are safe, comfortable and cost effective on the road during the entire contract period.

- Reduce your costs and time pressure considerably. Repair costs and the application of preventative maintenance prevent surprising repair costs and downtimes. You profit from the extremely high value retention of your vehicle.
- You have more time for other more important company decisions: The Full Service Contract takes the administration activities out of fleet management for you.
- You can calculate safe and cost effective. You only pay the fixed and reasonable monthly flat rate for the whole duration of the contract.
- Contract details are determined according to your expectations. Contract duration, annual mileage as well as additional optional components are agreed purpose-orientated.
